Ulysses gadgets and gizmos to be abandoned in space (Geek.com)

On June 30, the satellite filled with 20 year old technology will go silent as it continues to orbit the sun. Ulysses and all its scientific instruments will be abandoned. One reason for the termination of the mission is that the communications bit rate has decreased, and other demands for the Deep Space Network stations ...

Alton Brown Would Not Approve of the Bandai Gyoza Maker Food Gadgets (Gizmodo)

Though it looks a lot like a larger version of those little cigarette rollers, this gadget is actually used to form perfect stuffed Japanese gyozas. We like it, but Alton Brown would never approve of...
